Eight students who will be attending Rivier College this fall have been awarded the Samuel A. Tamposi ’89H Scholarship. Kaitlyn Bicknell from Nashua North High School, Ashmita Lamichhane, Brittany Frizzell, and Adriana Mendoza from Nashua South, Danielle Pelletier and Allison O’Donaghue from Alvirne, Kelsy LaRose from Campbell, and Shannyn Gladstone from Merrimack High School have been selected.

Established in 1995 after the death of the prominent New Hampshire real estate developer and former Rivier College Trustee Sam Tamposi, the scholarship is awarded to students who demonstrate financial need, an exemplary work ethic and determination to succeed. In recognition of Mr. Tamposi’s alma mater, Nashua High School, one of the recipients must be a graduate of a Nashua high school. Students receive $3,000 annually, renewable for four years.
