Make a note in the Comments section if reduction in length is required. Concise presentation is important in any case. Please indicate what material can be deleted, shortened, or covered by a readily available reference.

Title

Precise and informative. Twelve words or fewer (preferably six to eight); no acronyms or abbreviations.

Authors

Listed authors should be limited to those who have made significant contributions to the paper.

Abstract

Proper and specific summary of objectives, contents, major results, and conclusions; 100 to 200 words.

Nomenclature

List of characters or symbols used throughout the paper, and their definitions. Acronyms should not be included in this list, and nomenclature definitions should not be repeated in the text.

Introduction

Adequate discussion of need and purpose of the work and its relation to prior work.

Content

Adequate justification and definition of assumptions, inputs, references, test conditions, etc., so that information presented is useful.

Figures

Readily understandable and useful as data or for design. Please point out unnecessary figures, photographs, as well as any errors or deficiencies. When color illustrations are provided, determine if use of color is essential to the interpretation of the data.

References

Adequate (see Introduction and Content sections above) are accurate; must be obtainable by the reader.

Numerical Accuracy and Experimental Uncertainty

The Online Academic Journal will not accept for publication any paper reporting (1) numerical solutions of an engineering problem that fails adequately to address accuracy of the computed results or (2) experimental results unless the accuracy of the data is adequately presented.

The Online Academic Journal Scope

Advancements in the liberal arts, sciences, education, nursing, and business administration studies.
