

Permission for Use of Student Paper/Project

U.S. Copyright Law (17 USC, section 106) prohibits the copying or use of a work, including student works, without the author's permission. Before using a copy of a student's work for information literacy assessment purposes, the student must complete this form and it must be submitted with the paper. This form gives Rivier University Libraries permission to use the material.

I hereby waive my right to privacy provided to me by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) for my work entitled _____ and permit the Rivier University Libraries staff to use it as a means of assessment of information literacy skills. I authorize the use of the stated material, including the making of reproductions for reporting purposes, and grant permission for this paper to be available to any university accrediting body until I give further notice.
