Dear Michael,

Thank you for submitting the Mass of the Presentation of Mary by Michael Parr. I am grateful for the service you provide as we prepare for the implementation of the new translation of the Roman Missal.

There are some inconsistencies between this text and the Roman Missal, Third Edition. These have been noted on the enclosed copy of the text.

I have carefully examined these texts, and I have no objection to their publication, once the noted changes have been made. I would note, however, that portions of these texts are copyrighted by the International Commission on English in the Liturgy, and this letter does not constitute release of copyright. Please contact them for permission, and they will give you the exact wording for the permission notice. The copyright dates could change to correspond to the publication of the Roman Missal. Once you have acquired such releases of copyright, please include the following notice among your copyright permissions:

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Finally, upon publication, please send three copies of the completed manuscripts to this Secretariat for our files.

Thank you so much for all your work and effort.

God’s peace,

Subject: Permission Request for Mass of the Presentation of Mary by Michael R. Parr

To Whom it May Concern:

Mr. Jason J. McFarland, Ph.D., Assistant Editor at the International Commission on English in the Liturgy, instructed me to send a proof copy of the Mass Setting I have written for use here at Rivier College so that it can be reviewed and approved for permission to use the ICEL excerpts of the text of the Third Edition of the Roman Missal. The Mass setting is titled for the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary: Mass of the Presentation of Mary.

I would gladly answer any questions or attend to any issues that you discover. Thank you ahead of time for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Michael Parr

Dear Mr. Parr,

Thank you for your email of 25 October.

We are pleased to grant permission, free of charge, for the inclusion of ICEL material in your Mass setting entitled Mass of the Presentation of Mary contingent upon the following conditions:

1. The appropriate copyright notice will be included:

2. Capitalization and punctuation will follow the official edition exactly.

3. This item is not for sale. Should you decide to sell the setting, this permission is limited to the first 500 copies sold.

Please note that several corrections have been marked in the attached document.

With every good wish.
