

Rivier University
Division of Nursing and Health Professions
Undergraduate Public Health Program End of Program Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Public degree requirements, graduates will have:

- Critical reasoning ability demonstrated in oral and written work at a level adequate for entry-level career positions. Students would also be prepared for graduate level studies.
- Research ability demonstrated in oral and written work at a level adequate for entry-level career position.
- Writing ability demonstrated in oral and written work at a level adequate for entry-level career positions or for professional careers.
- Local, state, national and global awareness of public health at a level adequate for entry-level career positions.