

Nursing Lab Assistant

Department: Division of Nursing and Health Professions

POSITION SUMMARY

Part-time student worker position

Students must have successfully completed NSG 101 and NSG 102. The lab work-study student is responsible for providing assistance to Nursing Lab faculty and students under the direction of the nursing faculty in coordination with the Nursing Lab Coordinator and the Assistant Coordinator.

Examples of Duties:

- Helping to set up for skills labs
- Inventory and labeling of lab supplies
- Organization of lab supplies
- Sign out of lab equipment
- Cleaning and maintenance of equipment and lab rooms 102, 104, and 105
- All beds made neatly
- Equipment put away or in baskets
- Helping students practice basic skills
- Other responsibilities as designated by lab faculty

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

Skills:	Dependable, approachable, knowledge of Fundamental nursing skills.
Mental Demands:	Work effectively with other staff and students.
Physical Demands:	Be able to sit and to walk around the lab and may occasionally be required to lift manikins or supply boxes.
Visual Demands:	Observation of students practicing in the skills lab
Environment:	Pleasant skills lab.

APPLICATION

This position reports to the DNHP Resource Center Coordinator.

Contact: Cheryl Bragdon
DNHP Resource Center STH 1st floor
603-897-8663
cbragdon@rivier.edu