FOR ONLINE COURSES

Teaching an online course? Here are the library services available to you.
Check out the Faculty Services LibGuide for more details!

Articles

The library offers access to hundreds of scholarly databases and journals. Use your Rivier login to access our databases from off campus.

RivILL

Found an article or book that's just perfect but we don't have it? Try interlibrary loan! Articles are delivered electronically, and books can be picked up at the library or delivered to your home.

Instruction

Request a brief video recording to review or highlight available resources for students.

Reserves

Print items, films and other materials can be made available at the library, and you can place links in Canvas to articles and online resources.

E-resources

Search the library catalog by keyword, title, author or ISBN to find e-books and streaming videos on your class subjects.

LibGuides

Available by request – your instructional librarian can create a custom research guide linking students with materials, resources and assistance.

Support

Your library liaison can collaborate with you to purchase new library materials to complement your course.

Ask us!

Reference assistance is available via chat, text, email and phone. If you live nearby, you're always welcome to stop by in person. One-on-one appointments for more help are available in person or online. We also have tutorials for 24/7 help.
