Education and Community Leadership

Prepare to be a leader in the community.

Why Study at Rivier?

Our Education and Community Leadership program provides you with the knowledge, skills, and competencies necessary to become an effective leader in community organizations.

Build Your Knowledge Base

Through a combination of business and education courses, you will gain a greater understanding of how organizations sustain themselves through effective leadership, sound financial management, effective hiring and staff evaluation practices, a constant focus on mission, and the flexibility to adapt to changing market forces.

Gain Real-World Experience

As an Education and Community Leadership major, you will participate in field experiences designed to help you gain an awareness of how organizations work. You will also have the opportunity to participate in an internship at a location that matches your career goals. You'll gain resume-building experience and build your professional network ahead of graduation.

Begin Your Career

Education and Community Leadership graduates may pursue careers as:

- Childcare center directors/owners
- Non-profit organization leaders
- State and federal agency professionals
- Preschool administrators/owners
- Before- and after-school program directors

Advanced Degrees and Licensure

Graduates are also well prepared to pursue master's degrees and licensure in communications, education, business, and other fields.
